

DAJIWORLD.COM-ONLINE EDITION

Tuesday, November 08, 2011 4:27:51 PM (IST)

Mangalore: Labour Unions Stage 'Jail Bharo' Campaign, Demand Rs 10,000 a Month

Mangalore: Labour Unions Stage 'Jail Bharo' Campaign, Demand Rs 10,000 a Month

Pics:SpoorthiUllal,DaijiworldMediaNetworkMangalore(PS)

Mangalore, Nov 8: As part of the nationwide 'jail bharo' campaign by labour unions urging fixation of minimum wage of Rs 10,000 per month, the district units of unions like BMS, INTUC, AITUC, HMS, CITU staged a protest in front of the head post office in Pandeshwar here on Tuesday November 8.

Addressing the protestors, B Madhava, secretary, district unit of CPI(M) said that though various labour unions had come together under one umbrella and protested against the government's apathy towards the working class people in the past, no action was taken. Instead, labourers' rights were restrained, he said.

